5. Old Business-
 - a. Discuss downtown landscaping, planter pots.
Kris Callow contacted Snyder's Greenhouse after the January DDA meeting to request a revised proposal for the planter pot arrangements including a reduction in maintenance to two times a week. The original proposal was three times a week. The number of plants per pot was also decreased from the original proposal. New proposal was for $10,355.

Motion by VanderVeen to approve the proposal from Snyder's for $10,335.
Second by Callow.

Discussion: Concerns about a potential dry season or drought conditions and the need for watering/fertilizer more than twice a week. Board agreed to consider additional payments per occurrence if needed for extra watering due to dry conditions.

Vote: 6 yes, 0 no

Note: Vicki Moulter was sworn in as a new member of the board prior to the vote.

Discussion related to the existing small evergreen trees in the planter pots. No interest expressed by the village or board to re-purpose the trees and plant them in the village. Borden directed to offer the trees to Snyder's.

6. Motion to adjourn.

Motion by Guild.

Second by VanderVeen.

Vote: 6 Yes 0 No
